

Yachting World

MAY 2004 £3.60

www.yachtingworld.com

YOUR ALL NEW MAGAZINE

NEW FEATURES NEW SECTIONS NEW LOOK

STUNNING
PICTURES
INSIDE

MARI-CHA

As you've never seen her before

PLUS

CRUISING: Pirates of the Caribbean – for real
YACHTS: Would you cruise in an Open 60? We did

MODERN CLASSICS: The legendary Swan 46
GEAR: All you need to know about Code O for cruising

GREAT SEAMANSHIP: Moitessier survives his ultimate storm

CS$9.50 US$7.95 A$8.95
NZ$13.50 Holland €6.70

Printed in the UK
AOL Keyword: Yachting World

By the Editorial team

ON THE WIND

THIS MONTH • Pindar scholarship finalists • America's Cup news • VDH's wrong-way record

First Shot

These incredible photographs were taken by French photographer Thierry Martinez from a helicopter in late February. Mari-Cha IV, revelling in the 25 knots of wind, was off the northern coast of Brittany en route for Antigua and the Caribbean regatta season. Just remember, this boat is 140ft long

